12 1/2c Flaked Voile 9 7/8c Suiting for 8

One of 7 Attractive Offerings of Wash Goods Section.

The price is cut for Monday only. This fabric is the biggest seller we have. It is an exceptional value at regular price. For a really stylish and inexpensive shirt-waist suit material we would recommend it above all others.

You may choose from colors of blue, green, tan, gray, and pink—furthermore, two or three shades of every color.

Champagne Pongee, 39c.

You cannot tell it from all-silk—it's half silk. A perfect imitation of all-silk Pongee—wears as well, and it may be fearlessly subjected to the tub. Very rich and handsome shirt waists and dresses are being made of this. Only 39c a yard here.

New Organdies, 37 1/2c.

Truly remarkable is the demand for these soft chiffon finish Organdies. But who can resist them? Beautiful, soft material without dressing to become sticky in damp weather. And printed in wondrous floral and novelty effects. Some of the new arrivals show full-blown Marchal Neill roses so perfectly rendered that one may seemingly pick them off. They combine the natural tints of the rose and foliage with lavender. More than 40 different styles—and only 37 1/2c for any of them.

Mercerized Grenadine, 29c.

Worth 55c.

Black and white mostly—and we've only a small quantity left. It's a bargain in summer dress materials that you'll be unable to duplicate when this is gone.

Turmoile Suitings, 39c.

We have secured another shipment of these goods in a limited quantity in the following colors: Light blue, gray, green, and electric blue. Flaked in the new way with white silk threads.

Linen Suitings, 35c yard.

We don't know how they were made to sell for the price. Made in Ireland, where the best of linsens come from. In one-thread checks and plain grounds. BLUE, GREEN, LAVENDER, AND BROWN are the shades.
